MOST OF THE REGIMENT'S FUNDS

TO BE THUS SPENT.

All Anxious to Go If Rates Are Reasonable and Sufficient Money Can He Raised-Brief Notes from the

A called meeting of the commandants First Virginia Regiment was held adquarters last night to consider eneral equipment of the regiment ways and means to attend the mauion of President-elect McKinley March. There were present Colone Captains Shepherd (adjutant), ord, Cunningham, Bossleux, Spence. kelford, Tennant, quartermaster has been felt for a very long time. the regiment have been equipped he minor articles.

as stated that the Adjutant-General and it was decided to draw loing this was estimated at about in, and from what passed at the it seems that an effort will be long to raise the necessary for this purpose.

, and there was a reasonable to whether the necessary funds raised to take the men free of n the present depression of busiirs, he was confident that hardly There was no present, in shape to go, and would the a good showing. He thought. a good showing. He thought, uisition for overcoats was grant-asonable time—that they might pretty stiff battallon ber of plans were suggested for and it was suggested that with overcoats, the ninety that are the Adjutant-General's those that could be borrowed Manchester Grays, enough might oming for the equipment of as as would be likely to go. The were: Misses Annie Stewart Wade, Mag-gle, Mary, Annie, and Fanny Hudson; at, and to use every effort in to raise the funds and to take ant to Washington.

Were: Misses Annie Stewart Wade, Mag-gle, Mary, Annie, and Fanny Hudson; May, Florence, and Little Jones: Magde-lene Boltz, Rosa Cooper, Lillie Goode, Tillie Smith: Messrs, Fergusson, R. Walker, and I. R. Cavin.

NOTES ABOUT THE ARMORY. A drilled last night with a Drum Corps, which is practicing the bicyclists here are taking much interest in the case of Barbee, decided in the Law and Equity Court on Thursday.

met in Company D's C. V. Meredith, the City Attorney, while was adopted making Mr. James Lewis Anderson, president of the League of Wheelmen, looked after Sergeant Charles T.

sermon to the First Regi-

Cavalry will be preached by the

Her Readings Enjoyed by a Large and Cultivated Audience.

own nuthoress, entertained a very large fashionable audienes at the Woman's tions from some of her most popurks, chiefly "The Dividing Pance, that the audience was delighted, ak mildly. Mrs Stewart is pos-n a large measure of every re-nt for the task she has underhe is a reader of great abilityres and delivery graceful. Her tuart was introduced by Mrs. Aringham county. tainment was cordially thanked. Guire will deliver his lecture, "The Sur-render of Yorktown," in the hall of the teresting since the inauguration le plans for the mistletoe ball, liant gatherings of 1890, 1891, 1892.

is at Old Point, where he attended the ball tendered to the officers of the army all will, in a measure, take the the assemblies of 1896.
to the fact that the space at and navy at the Chamberlin flotel limited, the number of inas will, of necessity, be restricted.

Hands Across the Sea.

is Across the Sea," a pretty Engelodrama, was presented at the last night, and well received. nery is picturesque, and the efvalistic, the revolving prison scene third act, and the fog and shipcene in the fourth act being very and embodies most of the well-expedients and features of a class ye that have their periods of su-, and their years of disuse, but which the public is never entirely There will be matinee and evening rmances to-day.

Encountered Henvy Fogs.

The schooner Addle Bliss arrived here raterday from Hillsboro', Nova Scotia, leaded with plaster and cement for War-her Moore. The captain reported heavy tegs on the trip. The Singin' Skule Repented. Jedediah Bobbin's Old-Fashioned Skule' gave their "speekin' and singin'." The skollers were in fine voice and entered into AGED CITIZEN DEAD. their jolly choruses with a vim, which was equilled only by the energy with which they carried out their many pranks. Davy Doodle, with his pencil

Alviry Slimmens, with her sorrow-

Their cute baby song; Romee and Juliet, their scene of love; the Yel-w Kid, in his Hogan's-alley dress; erushy Primmin's telling of Cousin lededish, all were so good that it is hard o say where most praise is due. Mr. and Mrs. Jedediah Bobbin are splen did "singin' akule" teachers, and may confidently expect a cordial welcome when ever they make appearance before th public. This popular entertainment will be given again on the night of January 29th, at Laurel-Street Methodist Episcopal burch, when it is expected that another large audience will greet Mr. and Mr.

LEE CAMP'S WEEKLY MEETING.

Dr. Fair to Preach the Annual Sermon Next Sunday Night.

R. E. Lee Carup, No. 1, Confederate

Veterans, held their regular meeting last night, with Commander John M. Warren

in the chair. There was a good attend-

An invitation was received from the Sons of Veterans for the camp to attend their celebration of General Lee's Birthday, on Monday, January 18th, on which occasion Colonel George Wayne Ander-

on will deliver the address. The invita

The committee to arrange for the an nual sermon before the camp, on Sunday, July 17th-consisting of Comrades E. Les-lie Spence, Thomas A. Brander, and E.

. Catlin-reported that they had selecermon in the Grace-Street Presbyterian hurch. The camp decided to meet in Camp Hall on January 17th at 7:30 clock P. M., in uniform, to go in a only to the church, and an invitation as ordered to be extended to George E.

Confederacy, to unite with the camp on member of the Board of Visitors of the oldiers' Home, in the place of Comrade efficient services of Comrade Spence. Captain Daniel Eldredge, of Boston, Dr. Powell to Preach.

Rev. E. L. Powell, of Louisville, Ky.

will occupy the pulpit of Seventh-Street

Christian church at 11 A. M. Sunday and ranks among the most eloquent speakers of that denomination

He is a native Virginian, a nephew of the Rev. Robert C. Cave, formerly of this city, from whom he inherits those graces of oratory which made his uncle

A Musical Evening.

The music class of Miss Maggle Gwilt were entertained at her residence, No.

ere entertained at her residence, No. south Laurel street, last night. Quite an extensive musical programme was ren-dered by the pupils, and Messrs. Fergus-son brothers added much to the plea-

Misses Annie Stewart Wade,

Pleased with the Result.

They are greatly pleased with the deci-

A good deal of interest was created in Richmond base-ball circles by the report that Frank Behne, a weil-known base-ball player, was missing. A spe-cial from Newport News states that Behne is now in that city, well and Personals and Briefs.

is in the city.

with the grip.

House of Delegates.

Mr . S. B. Southall, of Charlottesville,

Judge Robert W. Hughes, of the United

Mr. S. V. Southall, of Charlottesville

Bishop Newton will preach at Christ

Broad street yesterday, between Seven-teenth and Nineteenth streets.

Rev. Dr. John M. Pilcher will occupy

Miss Kate K. Williams, of 1225 Ployd

Next Friday night Mr. John P. Me

Mr. Charles E. Loeffler, who has been suffering with an attack of pneumonia, has been pronounced out of immediate

Miss Florrie Wilson and Miss Gertrude

Adjutant-General Charles J. Anderson

will administer confirmation.

aller at the State Library building

States District Court, is in the city.

Mr. Barbee's interests in the suit sure of the guests. Among those pre so famous and popular.

splendid addresses to the camp.

highly appreciated the faithful and lickett Camp, Confederate Veterans ions of Veterans, and Daughters of

. James Y. Fair to deliver the ance of members present.

A Native of Richmond and a Typical Virginia Gentleman-His Family and Funeral-Mr. Ernst Bochme

Mr. William Taylor Barret, one of the oldest citizens of Richmond, and a splendid type of the old Virginia gentleman, died early yesterday morning at his residence. 1400 Floyd avenue. Death resulted from pneumonia, with which deceased had been families. At one time he owned several large farms, which he managed very successfully. Not all his life was spent in the last fifteen years. At one time he owned and lived on a farm in Amherst county. At another time he lived in Albemarle county, and after that he spent several years in Manchester before re-

Mr. Barret was twice married. His first wife was a Miss Wood, of Albemarle county. One daughter, now Miss Lucy E. Barret, resulted from this union. His second wife was a Miss Wilson, of Prince Edward county. A son resulted from this union, Mr. William E. Barret.

His second wife survives him.

Mr. Barret was a member of the Marshall-Street Christian church. The de-ceased had not been engaged in active business for some years. He enjoyed. however, a wide acquaintanceship, and was held in high esteem by all who knew him. During the war Mr. Barret occupied an important position with the Confederate Government, and rendered the South

The funeral will take place at 3 o'clock this afternoon from Mr. Barret's late residence, No. 1809 Floyd avenue, and the ceremony will be performed by Rev. Mr. Garrison, pastor of Marshall-Street (Printing church)

Mr. Ernst Boshme, one of the oldest German residents of this city, died at his home, No. 607 east Marshall street, at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. Mr. Boshme was born in Brunswick, dermany, sixty-four years ago. He mane to this country while still a young man to seek his fortune, and met with moderate success until the war, when ne fought with the Confederacy. After the war he settled in Richmond engaged in business as a shoemake For some time he was the sexton of S John's German Evangelical church, always a zealous member of the ongregation

Mr. Boehme was a member of the Schiller Lodge of Odd Fellows', the Virginia Lodge, Knights of Honor, and the Germania Benefit Association, and dele-Germania Benefit Association, and delegations from each of these orders have been appointed to attend the funeral, which will take place at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from St. John's church, where the ceremony will be performed by Rev. Dr. Paul Menzel.

Mr. Boehme had been in indifferent health for several weeks, and for several days it was realized that the end was near at hand. He is survived by a wife, two sons, and a daughter.

MRS. SARAH A. PURCELL. Mrs. Sarah A. Purcell, relict of Captain William P. Purcell, died at 11:50 yes-terday morning at her residence, No. 1022

She had been an invalid for mer age. She had been an invalid for many years, though the immediate cause of her death was an affection of the lungs. Deceased was the mother of Sergeant Charles A. Gibson, of the Secret-Service Police, and leaves, besides, two other children.

The funeral will take place at 4 o'cl terment will be made at Hollywood, day evening at the home of her brother, Mr. G. R. Merriman, No. 801 China street. She leaves four brothers and one sister. The funeral will take place from Pine-

The remains of Mrs. W. E. Ervin, daughter of Mr. A. D. Atkinson, of the Lexington Hotel, whose death occurred in Chicago last Wednesday, reached this of the hotel. The funeral took place at to the hotel. The funeral took place at 3:30 yesterday afternoon, Rev. Dr. Moses D. Hoge officiating, and the interment was made at Hollywood. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. G. T. King, C. R. Guy, H. L. Strong, T. F. Parke, J. F. B. Jurgens, H. Levering, S. R. Gates, and W. K. Bache.

Paving operations were commenced on Fuesday night to the daughter of the wealthy Malden-Lane jeweller for whom he travels, are very much incensed at the charge now made by a young New York woman that she was married to Mr. Schuman a year ago, and that in taking Miss Kinscherf to be his bride he has incurred the risk of prosecution.

Mr. Schuman is a well-known Richmone plain away the sensational charge, and that his claim that he has never married or contemplated marrying the New York be fully established. According to the Journal the woman claiming to have been married to Phillips have returned to the city from a two weeks' trip in the country, where they had a delightful time.

New York. On the other hand the Herald gives her name as Mabelle C. Cameron, and this latter conforms to an advertisement that appeared in the Herald in Au-

SCHUMAN-CAMERON.-In New York city, January 25, 1896, Mabelle C., only daughter of Mrs. Genevieve Cameron, to Jules F. Schuman, that his client did not know that Miss Cameron claimed to be his wife until he read the advertisement quoted above, and he then put his case in the attorney's

The marriage of Mr. Schuman and Miss. Kinscherf on Wednesday night occurred at the home of the bride's parents, in Brooklyn, and about the time the wedng festivities were about to begin Skillman, Miss Mabelle's mother, went to the Lee-Avenue Station and implored Sergeant in charge to stop the wedding. There was, however, no warrant in the hands of the officers, and no steps

Miss Cameron's version of her acquaint-Miss Cameron's version of her acquaintance and alleged marriage with Mr. Schuman is given in an affidavit, which she signed in abandonment proceedings, brought in her behalf by A. H. Hummel. She says she met the Richmonder at Oid Point in March, 1895, and was introduced to him by a friend; that during the spring he visited her at her mother's house, and paid her marked attention; that they corresponded, and that on January 23, 1896, Mr. Schuman induced her to marry him without delay, and tack her to a house in 121st street, where a ceremony was performed by a man in clerical garb, and witnessed by his two

Mr. Schuman, according to both of the New York papers, denies having mar-ried, or ever intended to marry, the girl, who is now nearly 30 years old

A GHASTLY CHRISTENING.

Three Men Killed-Five Wounded. SCRANTON, PA., January 8,-A Hungarian christening at Mayfield, this county, yesterday, had the usual bloody end ing which attends these festivals, for, as the result of a fight with knives, one man is dead, two are dying, and five others are badly carved. Strong liquor flowed freely at the christening, and soon many of the men were mad with drink. Seven of the participants in the feast went to the house of Lucetz Krutchas Krutchas soon had to resent an insult to his wife, and then the knives flashed out fled from the room. A fearful fight fol-lowed in the dark. The drink-maddened men cut and stabbed each other, and rolled upon the floor in deadly grapple Finally, a constable and a posse brok-into the house, and when a light was had a ghastly picture was presented. The blood was everywhere, and stretched or dying men, groaning and cursing. physician was hastily summoned Krutchas was so terribly cut that he iled in a short while. The injuries of the other men show the savageness of the

Peter Guzey, cut over the heart, and with his left arm severed at the wrist, Wazeyl Zubai, stabbed in the back and with his lung pierced, and a chunk of flesh cut from a shoulder, will probably John Turpakone; ear cut off, and nume ous slashes on shoulder and back. Paul Pawlak; face and arms slashed John Nester; face, head, and breas

Michael Oleaniz; stabbed in the fac-Andrew Telep; stabs, and a broker

These men are under guard in the hos-pital, and an investigation of the affair is being held.

JACKSON-DAY RACING.

Large Crowd at the Crescent City Track. NEW ORLEANS, LA., January 8 .- The legal hol'day here to-day brought out a large crowd. The racing was spirited and over a dry track. The Jackson Handicap ($1,000) went to Donna Rita, a 15-to-1 shot. Of the other events, three went to first choices, and the public did pretty

The club has opened eight extra $1,000 stakes, to close here on January 20th. First race-selling, seven forlongs-R G. Ban (102, Turberville 5 to 2) won andy second, and Gracle C. third. Time Foscan (10 to 1) won with Graylin cond, and Minnie Murphy third. Third race—selling, seven furlongs—Ne-cedah (100, Reiff, 2 to 1) won, with Alamo second, and Denver third. Time, 1:39%.

Fourth race—the Jackson Handicap, $1,000, seven furlongs—Donna Rita 92, Clay, 15 to 1) won, with Damocles second, and Rossmar third. Time, 1:30.

Fifth race-seiling, one mile-Davezac (10), Morse, 4 to 1) won, with Paros se-cond, and Miss Clark third. Time, 1:45½ Sixth race-six furlongs, selling-Doro-thy (99, Hirsch, even) won, with May Ashley second, and Tommy Rutter third. Time, 1:16 1-4.

ST. PAUL BANKS RECOVERING.

Reorganization Proceeding - Ones tion as to Public Funds.

ST. PAUL MINN., January 8,-The banks of St. Paul and Minneapolis are politors of the Bank of Minnesota to look after their interests while reorganization is being perfected has met William Dawson, president, and William William Dawson, president, and William Dawson, Jr., cashler of the bank, and obtained from them as detailed accounts of the actual condition of the bank as they could furnish. This committee represents depositors who had on deposit more than $1,000,000 and are willing to act together in the matter of reorganization through the committee. have a plan to present to the depositors shortly, by which they will eventually receive dollar for dollar.

A serious question now being agitated is what the city and county are going to do for funds with which to carry on cur rent business. In round figures, there is tied up in city and county funds in the four suspended banks $300,000, of $247,000 belongs to the city, and $53,000 to the county.

A Word to Dispatch Subscribers. We would earnestly call the attention of our subscribers to the offer, which the Dispatch is still helding out to them, in that artistic souvenir, "The Lost Cause." Don't fail to have it in your households. It will grow in interest as

Cut out three coupons of different dates and bring them with 10 cents to our counter, or send them with 10 cents and a 2-cent postage stamp, if you wish them mailed to any address. In the latter event, address

COUPON DEPARTMENT, The Dispatch Company,

Man and Five Children Drowned. ST. LOUIS, MO., January 8 .- A spe cial from Piato, Mo., says that one man and five children were drowned in Texas county last Saturday as a result of the that section of floods in that section of ... Thomas Wilson, accompanied daughter, Mrs. Kinnery, and her five children attempted to ford Prairie creek which was very high, as a result of the recent rains. The team became unrecent rains. The team became un-manageable, and soon lost their footing. The wagon sank, and, the sideboards floating away, the whole party were thrown into the water, Mr. Wilson and Mrs. Kinnery succeeded in getting to but the children were drowned. Three of the bodies were recovered yes terday.

Daniel McGlotheran was drowned the same day while trying to cross Mill creek.

Two Negroes Killed.

MACON, GA., January 8.—A special to the Telegraph from Cochran, Ga., says: Last night three negro tramps entered the Ingraham Hotel and stole an over-The proprietor discovered the theft as the negroes were making their exit from the building, and, with Marshal Rogers, pursued the thieves. The necity, where they were overtaken. stopped and opened fire on Ingraham and Rogers. The pursuers returned the fire. killing one negro, mortally wounding a second, and capturing the third

Charleston Bonds Stolen. CHARLESTON, S. C., January

Eleven Charleston 4 per cent, city aggregating in value 33,200, were from the private residence of Mrs. Rose Wednesday night. The bonds were eight to $100 each, numbered 204 to 211; one $1,000 bond, No. 834; one $1,000 bond, No. 894; one $500 bond, No. 172

The Fourgurean-Price Co.

To-day again our Great Clearing Sale in

500 6-FOOT STEP-LADDERS, WITH

Substantially-Made Hat and Coat Racks halls, worth 25c., for 13c 300 EXTRA HEAVY BLOCK-TIN STEW KETTLES, 4-QUART SIZE, WITH DOUBLE-RIVETED HANDLES.

$17.50 for $30 Real French China Dinner Sets, "Haviland" made, containing 100 pieces, including large soup tureen, spe-cial for $17.50.

ner Sets, containing 100 pieces, nice decorated, and guaranteed not to craze 200 Children's Trays, with Patent Ad-justable Spring, nicely decorated, worth SETS, HANDSOMELY DECORATED, 12 PIECES, ACTUALLY WORTH 89. 5,000 boxes Toothpicks at 1c.

iew odd shapes, worth 50c., for 12c. Carlsbad China Cream Pitchers, prettily decorated, with dainty decorations, regular 25c. ones, for 5c. choice,

500 DOZEN BEST QUALITY FLINT-GLASS TUMBLERS, 3 DIFFERENT DE-SIGNS TO SELECT FROM, NO SEAMS. WORTH REGULARLY 75 AND 98c, PER DOZEN, SPECIAL TO-DAY, SIX FOR

THE FOURQUREAN-PRICE CO.

ON THE APPOMATTOX.

A RESIDENCE IN DINWIDDIE DE-

STROYED BY FIRE. A Cockade City Man Heir Probably

PETERSBURG, VA., January 8 .- (Speial.)-The residence of Mr. James H. Boissean, in Dinwiddle county, about fourteen miles from Petersburg, and six miles from the county court-house, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday, family were enabled to save some of their furniture, but lost the crop of peanuts of last year, which was stored in some of the vacant rooms, and other of their personal effects. The fire was accidental, and obtained such rapid headway that all attempts to subdue it were futile. There was no insurance on the kin of his deceased wife, who are six persons living in Virginia, among them, Mr. Williams. A lawyer from North Carolina has charge of the interests of the Virginia heirs.

A PROBABLE FORTUNE.

There is no question that Petersburg's water supply is very seriously threat-ened. One of its chief reservoirs is dry, and in the others the water is very In case of necessity a portion of the city can fortunately be supplied from the river. All of the consumers are using water as economically as possi-ble, and many are depending upon the and springs in their neighborhood

At the residence of the bride, in Din-widdle county, on Wednesday, Miss R. T. Bishop, a highly-respected young citizen of the county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John W. Nicholson and Rev. C. W. Crawley. The cou-ple are well known in this city, the bride being the sister of our townsman,

GENERAL NEWS. The three-masted schooner Edward W. Young, Captain F. W. Wyman, which arrived here yesterday with a cargo for Messrs. Davie & Woittle, is probably the largest vessel of the kind which has come to our wharves in several years. She has a draft of 10 feet, and had to be lightened before she could get to the

While Major Robert Stiles, of Richmond, was speaking in the Circuit Court to-day for the plaintiff in the Tennant-Dunlop suit, he was taken suddenly iil, and it was some time before he was well enough to proceed with his argu-Major Stiles spoke all of yesterday and to-day.

The case has given rise to some sharp asperities and criticisms on both sides.

Judge Hancock will take some time in which to render his decision.

Deputy Collector Resigns-Ex-Sena-

LYNCHBURG, VA., January 8.—(Special.)—Mr. John A. Faulkner, United States Deputy Collector in the Western District of Virginia, has resigned his posi-tion, and will be succeeded by Mr. Floyd Featherston, heretofore Collector's clerk. Featherston, heretolore collectors derk. Mr. Featherston is succeeded by Mr. A. K. Stratton, and Mr. Stratton is in turn succeeded by Mr. H. O. Holt, who stood highest on the eligible list of the district. Ex-Senator J. J. Ingalls, of Kansas, de-livered a lecture in the Opera-House here to-night on "The Problems of Our Se-cond Century." A large and representa-tive audience was present. The lecture was given under the auspices of the Court, commenced this morning, as stand-ing master, taking accounts in the case of the People's Trust Company, of Brook-lyn, against the Lynchburg Electric Com-pany. This step is taken to ascertain the pany. This step is taken to ascertain the priorities of liens, looking to the winding up of the affairs of the cor up of the affairs of the company and the sale of the property, which includes an electric street railway.

Norfolk Postmaster's Shortage. NORFOLK, VA., January 8.—(Specicl.)— Inspector Clum and Mr. James W. Long have finished an inventory of the stock in post-office here. Their separate accounts, when compared, tallied. This enables Inspector Clum to fix the amount of Postmaster Degge's shortage at about $5.40. Mr. Degge says that he and his sureties have paid in about $5.500 in cash. The amount of shortage was stated here-

Houseware Department. To-Day's Cloak Sale.

COATS; TRIMMED WITH STITCHED CLOTH STRAPS; BLACK BEAVER EVERY SIZE FROM THIS BANKRUPT AND KERSEY COATS, ALL HAND-STOCK TO SELL NOW FOR $2.50. SOMELY SILK LINED THROUGHOUT, 86, 87, AND $8.50 COATS FOR $3.75. AND WARRANTED PERFECT, PRET-TIER THAN OUR $9 AND $12 COATS, FROM THIS BANKRUPT MAKER, AT

B. FLORSHEIM'S,

Half-Price Sale

STILL CONTINUES AT 328 East

Every Suit of Clothing in the house going at 50 cents

A large lot of Men's and Boys' Pants that sold for $2

328 East Broad Street.

Peltier-Base-Ball. ROANOKE, VA., January 8 .- (Special.) Comptroller Eckels has approved the proposition of the First National and the National Exchange banks, of this city, to assume the payment of the deposits of the Commercial National Bank, of Roanoke, which closed its doors about ten days ago, and as soon as the papers have been signed this class of creditors of the last-named bank will receive their cheerful, and says he is confident of an to-morrow afternoon. He was 8 years old, and came here eight years ago from Appomattox county. He leaves a wife and several children. He was a faithful

THE ATTORNEY FORGOT.

Hence O. B. Hill Had Trouble with

His Checks. NORFOLK, VA., January 8,-(Special.)-O. B. Hill, charged with embezziement. was before the Police Court to-day. Besides the charge made against him by Armour & Co., to whom he gave a $28 check, payment on which had also been liste immediately wired him to send a refused. Information from Poughkeepsie, full report, on which the department could N. Y., to the effect that Mr. Hill gave to take action, the preacher, organist, and sexton who asthe preacher, organist, and sexton who as-sisted at his wedding in that city on Christmas-Day, checks which were not honored by the bank upon which they were drawn, was also developed in the course of the hearing, which consumed three hours.

Mr. P. J. Morris, an attorney, testified in behalf of the prisoner that prior to the latter's departure for Poughkeepsle he had promised to discount and place to Hill's credit a note for $500 to meet his checks. However, being suddenly called to New York, Morris forgot to do this, and hence Hill's trouble with his checks. With this additional light before it, the Court took the matter under advisement. and Hill was rebailed in the sum of $200.

University Student Dead. UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, January 8.—(Special.)—Lectures were suspended here to-day, out of respect to the memory of Mr. A. Stephen Dandridge, a student in the academic department, who died this morning. He had been suffering with an attack of grippe, but congestion of the lungs set in this morning; a hemor-rhage being the direct cause of his death. Mr. Dandridge was a son of the Hon. A. Stephen Dandridge, of Shepherdstown, W. Va., who arrived here this afternoon to take the body home to-morrow.

New York Dry-Goods Market. NEW YORK, January 8.-There have en indications to-day in the dry-good market of an improvement in demand in various quarters, some agents report-ing that for the first time during several ing that for the first time during several weeks past their orders are such as to encourage them in the hope of a substantial expansion in business shortly. In the jobbing trade spring wash fabrics in printed and woven-pattern lines and prints are being distributed moderately well, whilst at first hands business is quiet, pending the reorder demand. Woollen goods of all transactions are quiet, and without material change.

Old papers for sale at 25c. a hundred at Broad Street.

BARGAINS GALORE:

on the dollar, or one half of marked price. to go at $1 a pair. Odd-and-end lot of Boys' Knee Pants at prices ranging from 50 to 75c., to go at 35c. FLORSHEIM.

ROANOKE'S CLOSED BANK,

Proposition Approved-The Case of money in full. The depositors will be notified what bank to check on, and when notified what same to these and any which will be within the next ten days.

Eugene Peltler, publisher of the Circle-Check Buyer and Labor News, who was wanted here to answer the charge of obtaining money from Roancke merchants reder to the pretence, arrived here this expected from the shock of the past two weeks. The assets of the Germania Bank of St. Paul have been found in excellent shape, and the reorganization of the institution will be pushed with all possible. The committee appropriated by the case will go to the nearest. The committee appropriated by the case will go to the nearest. In the outside, where Hoffman was confined there are seven tiers. He was on the second the morning from Bichmond in the custody of Deputy-Sergeant Terry, and on his appearing before Police-Justice Wood, this nearest relatives. As Mr. Westbrook of his nearest relatives. As Mr. Westbrook of Deputy-Sergeant Terry, and on his appearing before Police-Justice Wood, this nearest relatives. As Mr. Westbrook of the case was continued till Monday, ball the case was continued till Monday, ball the case was continued to the cas being fixed at $150. An attempt on the part of Politier's counsel to bring him before Judge Woods, of the Hustings Court, upon a writ of habeas corpus, has not yet been successful. Pelier is very not yet been successful.

> equittal when the case is tried. Officer J A. Vest, formerly of the Roanoke police force, but latterly employed as policeman by the Norfolk and Western Railway Company, died at his home here to-day after a long illness, and will be buried in Amherst county and efficient officer.

At a meeting of the Base-Ball Associa-At a meeting of tion, of Roanoke, to-night the following officers were elected: President, Henry Scholz: Secretary Ed. Donnelly, Direc-Charles Patterson, Lewis Sci Tompkins, and Charles Byrne. Mitchell was unanimously elected manager of the association and was authorized o proceed at once to secure the clubs to make up the league.

She Is Cleared of the Suspicion of Filibustering.

them with employment confronted with another charge brought tas, Cuba, with a cargo of munitions of the Daisy Roller Mills, who held a $22 war, and requested instructions. Mr. Car-

Naval Orders of Interest.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 8.→ Chief-Engineer G. H. Kearney, ordered from the Minneapolis to the Cincinnati; Chief-Engineer J. H. Chasmar, from the Cincinnati to the San Francisco, as fleet engineer, in place of Chief-Engineer W. A. Windsor, relieved as fleet engineer, and ordered to the Minneapolis; Lieutenant-Commandar W. H. Everett, from the steel board to the hydrographic office; Surgeon C. N. Gravatt has been detailed to the Naval Museum of Hygene, at

BLOOD POISON stinate sores and ulcers yield to its BARRET.-Died, at his residence Floyd avenue, January 8th, at 6 o'clock the 79th year of his age.

Funeral from residence at 3 o'clock THIS AFTERNOON. No flowers.

BOEHME.—Died, in Richmond, Va., January 8th, at 6 A. M., Mr. ERNST BOEHME, in the 6th year of his age. Funeral will be held SUNDAY, at 231 P. M., from his late residence, No. 507 east Marshall street, to St. John's Ogrman Evangelical church.

MERRIMAN.—Died. Thursday, January Tth, at 6 P. M., at the residence of has brother, G. R. Merriman, No. 80 China street, Miss MATTIE J. MERRIMAN. Blessed are the dead that die in the general order of the Governor, is-December 30th, ordering the comof officer to ascertain and make the most pressing demands of the nt in the matter of equipment, was After considerable discussion it was to fully equip the regiment with belts, and leggins, and to draw the of the amount allowed, which is man, in overcoats, the need for stimated that 125 coats can be purwith the money left, after the 400 n hand about ninety overcoats, in sestion of providing the regiment entirely new uniform was dis-but no action was taken. The

MAY ATTEND THE INAUGURATION.

THE INAUGURATION TRIP. matter of attending the inaugura-Mass.; Commander John A. Andrew Post No. 15, Grand Army of the Republi said, if it was possible to make should certainly be done. He would be for the benefit of and Major William H. Trickery, Third New Hampshire Volunteers, made were accompanied to the camp by Past Commander William K. Eldridge, of Phil nd of the whole South to od representation at the cere-Kearny Post, of this city. Comrade Charles F. Taylor responded eloquently on behalf of the camp. He thought, however, that the not altogether feasible, as the certainly could not go without and at 8 P. M. will deliver the annual address before the Young Men's Missionary Society of that congregation. Mr. Powell is one of the most distinguished ministers of the Christian Church.

portation of the men. Captain am stated that he believed, from froad men had told him, that nt could be put in Washington stant-General, it was said, had ain of the regiment, Rev. J. Y. man, on Sunday, the 17th instant. MRS STUART AT WOMAN'S CLUB.

Ruth McEnery Stuart, the well-

the pulpit of the Second Baptist church to-morrow, preaching morning and night. avenue, leaves to-day to visit Judge Cardwell's family, at Hanover Courtorien were particularly effective, rendering of the drawl of the Mrs. G R. Eldridge, who has been spending several weeks in the city, returned yesterday to her home, in Buckpatois is inimitable.

To He Given at the Temple. Central Committee of the Associathe Virginia Historical Society Miss Florric Wilson and

Mr. Thomas R. Allcock, who is engaged will be readily recalled by all Mr. Thomas R. Allcock, who is engaged were fortunate enough to attm. and plans have been made in the office of Auditor Marye, is still continue to his home, No. 812 cast Clay street, fined to his home, No. 812 cast Clay street, fined to his home, No. 812 cast Clay street. upon a more elaborate scale but is recovering from his recent illness,

> Rev. Edward L. Pell will deliver his regular weekly lecture on the Sunday-school lesson at the Young Men's Christian Association this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Mr. Walter B. Tyler and wife, of Fredericksburg, are at Murphy's Hotel. Mr. Tyler was the Republican candidate for Congress in the First Virginia District in the recent election, and was defeated by Hon. W. A. Jones. Work on the Hollywood Cemetery line of the Traction Company is being pushed rapidly along. Tracks have now been laid from Broad to Main street. One of the officials said yesterday that the line would surely be completed in sixty days. The regular monthly meeting of the G. R. Hovey. Richmonders in New York.

The regular Manager School Association of Richmond and Manchester will be held on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Fulten Baptist church. Speeches will be made by Mr. B. F. Johnson and Professor

Cororan Hall was taxed to its utmost

Special Hall was taxed to its utmost

T. Sauer, Broadway Central; E. T. Crump.

T. Sauer, Broadway Central; E. T. Crump.

Imperial; W. M. Coulling, Mariborough.

MR. WILLIAM TAYLOR BARRET ANSWERS THE FINAL SUMMONS.

Passes Away-Other Deaths.

ill for several weeks. Mr. Barret was born in Richmond in 1818, and would have been 79 years old had he lived until next March. He was a son of the late Anderson and Rebecca Barret, and on both his father's and mother's side was related to some of the oldest and most prominent Virginia Richmond, but he had resided here for turning to Richmond,

DEATH OF MR. BOEHME.

Taylor street.

Mrs. Purcell was in the 65th year of this afternoon from Park-Place Methodist church, of which Mrs. Purcell was an earnest and devout member, and the in-MISS MERRIMAN. Miss Mattie J. Merriman died Thurs-

FUNERAL OF MRS. ERVIN.

Dr. E. T. Baker is on the street again | Guy, after being confined to his bed for a week | B. SAYS SHE IS HIS WIFE. This Claim Made by Another Woman After Mr. Schuman's Wedding. The friends in this city of Mr. Jules F. Schuman, who was married in Brooklyn > boy, his father has been in business here for a great many years, the family has always been held in high esteem, and the relatives and friends of the young man are satisfied that he is prepared to ex-

> Schuman in January, 1896, is Miss Mabelle C. Skillman, the daughter of a Treaton, N. J., manufacturer of bicycles and hardware specialties, whose home is in

Lawyer Edward F. Stern, who repre-ents Mr. Schuman, assured the Herald

Terrible Fight Among Hongarians-500 6-FOOT STEP-LADDERS, WITH PAIL-REST, MADE OF BEST NORWAY
PINE, WELL BRACED, WORTH $1.25,
SPECIAL TO-DAY, 35c.
50 odd Slop Jars, Water-Carriers, and Foot-Tubs (large size), made of the best Japanned tin, nicely painted, and worth 69 and 38c., choice of any 25c.

$5 COATS FOR $2.50.

LADIES' BLACK WOOL BEAVER
COATS, WARRANTED PERFECT FITTING, TRIMMED IN BOTH LARGE AND SMALL PEARL BUTTONS. SOME HAVE SILK CORD LOOPS; ALSO
LADIES' AND MISSES' BOUCLE
COATS, RED AND BLACK, GREEN
COATS, HALF SILK LINED, QUEEN AND BLACK, SOLID BLACK; BOUCLE
COATS, TRIMMED, WITH STANDING SLASHED, COATS, TRIMMED, WITH STANDING SLASHED, COATS, TRIMMED, WITH STANDING STANDING SLASHED, COATS, TRIMMED, WITH STANDING SLASHED, COATS, TRIM

Japanned tin, nicely painted, and worth 69 and 98c., choice of any 25c.

WORTH REGULARLY 25c., SPECIAL

$6.58 for $15 Genuine English China Din

Cuspadores, real china, with hand dec rations, regular price 49c., to-day's price $3.50 FOR NEW DESIGNS IN TOILET

12c for 50c. Cakes Plates, beautiful goods, full size, Royal Bonn decorations, to a Neat Fortune-Serious Shortage of Water Supply-Brief Mention.

$1 sets of Bread, Cake, and Paring Knives, warranted good steel, 24c. for the three knives.

property, and the loss, therefore, falls very heavy on the family. Mr. John P. Williams, a member of the Petersburg Fire Department, has received information that he may proba-

THE WATER SUPPLY .

for their drinking supplies. MATRIMONIAL Rosa V. Howerton, a charming and popular young lady, was married to Mr

THE HILL CITY. tor Ingalls Lectures.

Lynchurg Lyceum Association.
W. D. Coleman, of Danville, by a decree of Judge Paul's in the United States

LADIES AND MISSES BOUCLE COATS, HALF SILK LINED, QUEEN ANNE STANDING, SLASHED COLLAR, NEVER BEFORE COST LESS THAN $5. EVERY SIZE FROM THIS BANKRUPT STOCK TO SELL NOW FOR..... $2.50. LADIES' MIXED, BROWN, AND RED BOUCLE COATS, LADIES' TAN IRISH-BOUCLE COATS, LADIES TAN IRISH-FRIEZE COATS, HALF LINED WITH CHANGEABLE SILK TAFFETA; BLACK KERSEY CLOTH COATS,
TRIMMED WITH BRAID AND MARTEN FUR; TAN CAMEL'S-HAIR COAT, EDGED WITH FUR, AND HALF SILK LINED; BLACK BEAVER COATS, TRIMMED WITH LARGE AND SMALL DEARL BUTTONS NOT A COAT IN

COATS, BRAIDED AND FUR TRIM-

Meyers-6th & Broad Meyers-6th & Broads

MEN'S AND BOYS' CLOTHING

 न्यार्ययावायययय ३ यययययययययय RESULT OF ENFORCED IDLENESS.

> SING SING, N. Y., January 8 .- As a result of the new law against contract convict labor, Frederick Hoffman, a prisoner, attempted to kill himself in Sing Sing prison this morning. Up to the first of the year Hoffman has Up to the first of the year loss office in been employed in the printing-office in the prison, but he was compelled to quit the prison, but he was compelled to quit

Convict in Sing Sing Prison Attempts Suicide.

the prison, but he was compelled to quit work with the others. Since then he has been locked in his cell. The only time he had been out of the cell in the past week was when he was given a little exercise. It was while he was receiving his usual exercise this morning that Hoffman tried to end his life. to end his life.

There is a gallery all around the prison building on the inside. In the building Hoffman broke out and jumped over the ralling. It was about 75 feet from the tier in which Hoffman was locked up to tier in which Hoffman was locked up to the stone floor of the prison. One of his legs was broken, his head was badly cut, and he was internally injured. The phyicians say he has no chance to recover.

The prisoners are begging for something tragedies will result from their enforced There are many keepers in Sing Sing who express the belief that the convicts will be harder to manage now than tofore owing to the inability to furnish

THE STEAMER DAUNTLESS.

WASHINGTON, January 8 .- The steamer Dauntless has been cleared of the suspicion that she was engaged in filibustering operations during her recent trip out from Jacksonville. She returned to Jacksonville Wednesday at midnight, and under instructions from the Secretary of Treasury, the Collector of Customs there to-day made a report by telegraph, stating, in substance, that the Dauntless had been occupied in legitimate weeking work. The Collector also reported that application had been made for clearance check, which was not honored, he was for the Dauntless for the port of Nuevi-

CONTAGIOUS fn all its stages completely eradicated by S.S.S. Gb.

MERRIMAN.-Died, Thursday, Ja

The funeral will take place SATUR-DAY EVENING at 8 o'clock, from Place Street Baptist church. Friends and se-quaintances are invited to attend.